“TAKING THE CHALLENGE OUT OF CHALLENGING STUDENTS®”

by Diana Day

How To Teach Hard-To-Manage Kids

Would You Like New, Effective Strategies to Use with Your Attention-Demanding, Limit-Seeking, & Motivation-Lacking Students?

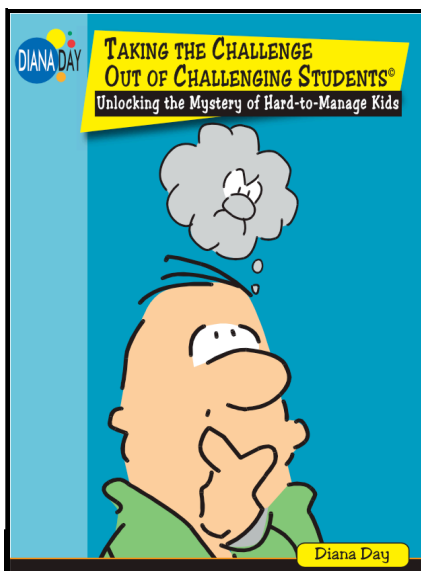

Diana Day presents an interactive seminar that will unlock the mystery of unmotivated, disruptive, aggressive or attention-seeking students. These are the students who daily test your limits of patience and endurance and sometimes force teachers from the profession.

Learn how the brain processes information that causes out-of-control behavior or lethargy. Most importantly, teachers will learn what to do about these outbursts or lack of motivation in their classrooms!

Return the next day with the required skills needed to work with chronically disruptive students that everyone believed nothing would work, feeling calm and confident. Because difficult youngsters are becoming more numerous and challenging, this presentation is an essential tool for a campuses' future!
